Tuberías y metales universales SA de CV

Principle Declaration

TUMUSA actively participates in the formation of individuals:

With Order, Health, Harmony and Fairness.

That act with their free will and same essence of their true being.

That develop their intuition to be used with fairness.

That cooperate and allow for growth in themselves and others.

That recognise they belong to and serve a natural order – to live in harmony and cooperation with the company therefore allowing all to triumph over any opposition - collaboration is the key to replacing opposition.

That develop their creativity and reflection, remembering all they learn and communicating this back to colleagues when needed, understanding the experience of their own conscience.

Who can use meditation and contemplation and silence in a free state of logical thinking, identifying their I - Consciousness.
